

TURKEY IS ON VERGE OF WAR

Sultan Has Failed to Fulfill His Promises to France.

BREAK IS SERIOUS

The French Ambassador Has Left Constantinople Under Orders from Home.

STATUS OF TROUBLES

Paris, Aug. 27.—The sultan has failed to fulfill his promises to the French ambassador at Constantinople and the situation is more critical than ever.

The foreign office here says the French ambassador has left Constantinople under orders when it was found the sultan was not giving satisfaction and that the charge d'affaires must wait the sultan's decision.

Status of the Troubles.
A semi-official communication regarding the status of the trouble with Turkey given out today says: "August 17th arrangements were effected with the sultan, with the approval of the sultan. On the 19th Constans telegraphed Harris that none of the promises had been fulfilled. On the 21st the minister of foreign affairs telegraphed Constans in view of the complete disregard of the promises, France could no longer continue negotiations. He requested Constans to inform the sultan that he had received orders to leave. On the 23rd Constans made this communication to the sultan. On the 26th, none of the promises having been kept Constans left Constantinople."

Relations are Broken.
Constantinople, Aug. 27.—The porte considers the negotiations with France broken. The Turkish ambassador to France who is away on a vacation is instructed not to return to Paris and thus avoid having his passport handed him.

Situation is Critical.
Paris, August 27.—The trouble with Turkey, supposed to have been amicably adjusted, has suddenly assumed a graver phase than ever. M. Constans, angered by the sultan's procrastinating methods, left Constantinople today in a huff.

Abdul Hamid's trade giving satisfaction in the quays question had been taken as indicating that he would accept the entire French claims, but M. Constans telegraphed to his home government yesterday setting forth in indignant terms that the sultan was still holding out in the payment of three Frenchmen, dating back many years, and amounting to several million francs, for which M. Constans demanded a settlement. He also told of annoying means the porte was adopting seemingly only to secure delay.

In this message M. Constans declared that he would depart today unless he received some definite assurances. Evidently he did not, for indirect news was received that he had taken a steamer for Stamboul, where he would board a train and shake the dust of Turkey off his feet.

At the foreign office there is a disposition to underrate the significance of this action. The public generally, however, is inclined to believe that a crisis is at hand.

MRS. NATION ON THE VAUDEVILLE STAGE

Opens the Matinee Bill in a Philadelphia Theatre—Balked Right on the Start.

Philadelphia, Pa., August 27.—Carrie Nation came out of the West yesterday into the staid old city of Philadelphia and incidentally made her debut on the vaudeville stage. Her arrival was a much-heralded affair. The initial appearance was made at the Grand opera house yesterday afternoon before a large audience. Right at the start the Kansas woman balked.

She arrived at the theater and then declined to appear as a part of the vaudeville show. The managers had assigned her stunt to a place about the middle of the show but she said that she wanted to be either first or last, and the management after a few sharp words with her manager finally gave in and she was allowed to open the show.

There was little applause for her and she began to talk in a strong concise way, urging her hearers to wipe out the saloons. She then spoke of women generally and what they should do to make the public rise and wipe out the saloons from the city.

AN ELECTRIC LINE TO LAKE GENEVA

Common Council of Milwaukee Grants a Franchise—Steam Road Said To Be Behind It.

Milwaukee, Wis., August 27.—The common council last night passed an ordinance granting a franchise to the Milwaukee, Burlington and Lake Geneva railroad to build an elevated road through the city. The road will be operated by electricity and permits the running of freight trains over the streets.

The franchise is perpetual. The route taps the best part of the Kinnickinnic and Milwaukee River manufacturing districts and is the most valuable railroad franchise ever granted here.

The company pays nothing for it except the damages that it will have to pay abutting property. The terminus of the road is at Michigan and Milwaukee streets, in the heart of the East side. Clarence Darrow of Chicago is one of the promoters of the line. It is rumored that the Illinois Central or the Wisconsin Central is back of the project.

FRUSTRATE PLANS TO IMPORT MEN

Missionary Work of the Amalgamated Scouts Among the Non-Union Men of the East.

Pittsburg, Pa., August 27.—The plan of the trust to import men from the east by the wholesale to the striking mills of this city was frustrated by the missionary work of the Amalgamated men. The star scout of the steel workers returned this morning after an extended eastern tour and reports that he has blocked several schemes of the trust officials to import large bodies of non-union men. In every case, he says, the men had been deceived by the trust agents regarding the real situation.

CONCLAVE OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR; LOUISVILLE, KY., IN GAY ATTIRE

Many Thousands of Sir Knights Are Gathering—Fully 50,000 Visitors in the Kentucky City Today—Festivities Begin This Evening.

Louisville, August 27.—With the pomp and pageantry befitting the order, the Knights Templar today escorted their grand encampment through a brilliantly decorated city to the Grand Asylum where the twenty-eighth annual convocation was formally opened.

It was an impressive and stately sight as the plumed knights with banners flying and bands playing, marched through the streets between packed rows of humanity.

The line of march was miles in length and the parade was so long that it took hours to pass a given point. Fully twenty thousand knights were in line.

The weather was all that could be desired and the parade was the most imposing ever witnessed in Louisville.

After Grand Master Lloyd had reviewed the parade, the encampment officers proceeded to the girls high school, which had been chosen as the grand asylum, where Ex-Congressman Breckenridge delivered an address of welcome with a response by Grand Master Lloyd, the convocation was thus formally opened.

Scarcely a building was without its streamers or a gorgeous dress of bunting. Even show windows were trimmed in Masonic emblems, and street fakers, not to be outdone, painted Maltese crosses on the toy balloons they hawked about.

At local headquarters the opinion was expressed that the convocation which begins tomorrow will prove the most notable ever held.

It is estimated that there are fully 50,000 visitors in the city today.

The Chicago commanderies, traveling in trains of five sections, arrived at noon and made an imposing spectacle as they marched to the custom-house where they separated and scattered to their quarters.

Other commanderies arrived from Kansas City, Charleston, S. C., from Connecticut, Pennsylvania, District of Columbia (accompanied by the famous Marine band), from West Virginia, New York, Ohio, California, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Georgia and other states. Many visitors came on regular trains and joined their comrades here.

The Pennsylvania, Illinois, Wisconsin and Ohio delegations are numerically the strongest here at present. Today was given up to informal reunions and the escorting of commanderies to their homes while in the city. The festivities of the convocation will begin at 8 p. m. when the grand commandery of Kentucky and the subordinate commanderies of the state will give a reception to officers and members of the grand encampment at the custom-house.

CENTRAL POWER HOUSE AT BELOIT ONE OF THE FINEST IN THE CITY

The Beloit, Delavan Lake & Janesville Electric Road Putting in a Large and Permanent Plant—Fast Grading Out of Rockford.

Beloit, August 27.—Beloit will have one of the best and finest equipped central power stations in the country when the building to be erected by the Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville Electric Road company is completed. George W. Knox, a Chicago electrical engineer, will have the plans in charge and he has recently returned from an extended trip on which he inspected some of the best interurban plants, east and west, and will profit by the experience of the best engineers in the country.

Mr. Knox has procured the topography of the site on which the power house is to be located and as soon as the contract for the engines and boilers is closed he will design the building. This he expects to do the coming week. As soon as possible thereafter work on the station will be commenced and will be rushed forward as rapidly as possible. The company hopes to have all the machinery installed before the first of the new year.

The equipment in the central power station, which will be located on South Race street, will include two 750-horse power engines, two 500 kilowatt rotaries. The generators will furnish power to these rotaries and also to a pair of like size to be installed in two sub-stations which will be located respectively ten miles north and fourteen miles south of the new year.

ROCKEFELLER, JR. ENGAGED TO WED

Engagement of Daughter of Senator Aldrich to Son of Oil Magnate Has Been Announced.

New York, Aug. 27.—Senator and Mrs. Nelson Aldrich announced today the engagement of their second daughter, Miss Abbie Aldrich, to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., the son of the Standard Oil magnate, who is said to be the richest man in the world. To inquirers young Rockefeller's secretary handed a typewritten slip on which was written:

"Senator and Mrs. Nelson Aldrich announce the engagement of their daughter, Abbie, to John D. Rockefeller, Jr."

Mr. Rockefeller has been attentive to Miss Aldrich for some time and was frequently at Narragansett Pier and at Providence this summer. He is 26 years old, and has been employed in the Standard Oil offices ever since his graduation from Brown University three years ago.

Young Rockefeller is an only son, the other three children being girls, and has been most carefully brought up. As a boy and youth he had tutors and traveled all over Europe.

He is said to have made quite a large sum of money in speculation recently.

OPEN AIR CAMPS TO CURE SICK

Boston Scientist Lays His Plans to Cure Consumptive People.

TO LIVE IN TENTS

Patients Must Remain Outside in Hot and Cold Weather and Follow Diet.

WANTS WORST CASES

Boston, Mass., Aug. 27.—Open air camps for consumptives will be pitched throughout this section and scattered throughout the country if the plans of a Boston scientist are realized. The first of these camps will be opened near Boston a few weeks. The scientist claims fresh air and proper living will arrest the progress of the disease and invites consumptives of all stages to join the campers, and says the worse the case the better. He expects the first camp to prove his theory, and is preparing to extend the movement as the number of patients increases. This first camp (and each succeeding camp will be like it) will consist of a "piano-box" tents arranged in a circle, with an open air fire in the center and surrounded by a duck wall eight feet high. Each of these tents will be a consumptive's home; a consumptive will sleep there even through the coldest weather with no other protection than plenty of felt blankets, felt sleeping bags, and a two-gallon jug of hot water. The tents are made of twelve-ounce duck, are only seven feet high, with four-foot walls boxed in around the bottom a foot from the ground. They will be lined with weather paper. The flaps will open towards the fire, the ten tents making a little circle about a clean gravel court. The bill of fare will include milk, eggs, vegetables, bread and butter, meat, chiefly beef, mutton, or pork broiled on spits before the fire or roasted in the embers, or boiled down into soup.

This open life is expected to cure the disease. The method is the result of experiments made last winter in a tent on Huntington avenue, by a scientist whose name has not yet been divulged. His theory has been well tested now, but he wants as many consumptives as will come to him—the worse their condition the better—to put them in his settlements. "The life in camp," he said, "quickly fortifies a man's bodily powers; it invigorates, then evolves man back toward ancestral or wild life. The skin, nails, and air-toughened and thickened; pulmonary catarrhs stop; hemorrhages cease. A civilized man loses his sensitiveness, finickiness, and skill. His emotions change. He becomes insensitive and fearless. All his energy goes to nutrition; his intellectual centers are dormant. All his powers are concentrated in building and repair." The camps are merely for the purpose of scientific investigation, and if a patient cannot afford the expenses he will be taken free.

...RAILROAD NEWS AND GOSSIP...

Contracts aggregating $3,000,000 have been placed by the New York New Haven & Hartford for the continuation of the work of raising the four tracks through Bridgeport, Conn. Upon the completion of this undertaking, which is to include a new station, commensurate with the importance of the city, and a new rolling life drawbridge, the New York, New Haven & Connecticut will have four tracks from New York to New Haven, 13.23 miles, except across three bridges, on which two tracks continue, and for a short distance through Mount Vernon, New York.

The Pennsylvania railroad is at present building a number of stone arches and has others in contemplation. The great forty-eight-arch stone bridge at Rockville on the Susquehanna river, the ten-arch bridge over the Juniata at Mount Union, the big stone arches planned at Latrobe, the new arches at Lilly, Irwin and Shafston, and the stone arches on all the new work on the Pittsburgh division, for which plans are now being made, show that stone work for permanent improvement on the main line is the rule. For stone and brick work alone on bridges, buildings, retaining walls, etc., the company has now arranged to spend more than $10,000,000. The new bridge over the Delaware river at Trenton will also be a stone structure.

Stockholders of the Rutland Railroad company will be carried free over the lines operated by this company to and from the annual meeting, on presentation to the train conductor of their stock certificates.

The Central railroad of New Jersey has issued an order prohibiting card playing on any of its local trains. The order is said to be the result of a fight on one of the trains due to a patron's efforts to prevent two other passengers from occupying seats at the time empty, but which he desired to reserve for friends who were to make up a card party.

The Union Pacific people say that twelve hours' reduction in time between Chicago and San Francisco is the goal toward which the management of that road is rapidly pushing, and within the next three years possibly more than a day's time can be taken off the overland journey.

Representatives of western roads have received notice from their general managers that, as a result of the meeting held in Chicago last week, in no case must passes be issued to shippers. Coupled with the order is a paragraph which states that violation of the order will be ground for the immediate dismissal of the offending agent.

In 1834 it was suggested that sails be used as an auxiliary power for propulsion on railways, and the scheme was put into practice in Sunderland, England, shortly afterward. In this country sails have been used in at least one instance on railroads. It was during the construction of that portion of what is now the Fitchburg railroad, between Troy and North Adams, that a foreman fitted a lorry with a mast and sail by means of which he traveled up and down the track.

An edict from General Manager Dickinson has been issued, notifying the employees of that system that habitual drinking or even the mere frequenting of saloons, would in future be considered cause for dismissal. Four thousand copies of the bulletin will be circulated. "It is a well known fact that drinking impairs a man's efficiency," the circular says. "The duties of railroad men, particularly those in the transportation and mechanical departments, are exciting, and necessarily demand cool judgment and a sound body. Notice is therefore given that habitual intemperance or the frequenting of saloons will be followed by discharge." The work of reconstructing the entire Southern Pacific system has begun. The work of substituting heavy for the 70-pound rails between San Francisco and San Jose is in progress. From the former city to San Jose the rails now being laid weigh 85 pounds. South to Castroville the company proposes laying 75-pound rails, and from there over the mountains 85-pounders.

The new railroad line from Mandalay to Thibaw in the Shan State of Thibaw, was opened on June 1. In its course it crosses the Gokteik gorge on a viaduct built by the Pennsylvania Steel company. The viaduct is 2,000 feet long and its highest pier stands 325 feet high. It is approached on each side by a gradient of 1 in 40.

The length of our-track railroad in the United Kingdom on Dec. 31, last, was 729 miles, out of a total of 21,835 miles of line open for traffic. The largest amount of our-track is on the London & North Western, 197 miles. Other prominent companies have: Midland, 186 miles; Great Northern, 84 miles; Great Western, 81 miles; North Eastern, 48 miles; Great Eastern, 22 miles; Great Central, 18 miles. The length of three-track railroad in the United Kingdom 169 miles, and of double track, 8,607 miles.

Of the 21,835 miles of railroad in the United Kingdom, 18,541 miles is of the standard gauge. There are 11 gauges in all, including 50 miles of 2 1/2 inches; 419 miles of three feet; and 2.4 miles of 5 feet 3 inches. The last is the standard gauge of Ireland. Besides this the board of trade reports 3 miles of track on the seashore at Brighton with a gauge of 18 feet, and there is also Listowel & Ballygunion in Ireland, which has no gauge at all, being a "memorial."

Two new logging roads will be built in Marinette county this year. One, to be constructed by the Peshigo company, will extend from Bagley Junction to Lake Nogue Bay. The other will be built by the N. Luddington company from Porterfield to Wausaukee on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway twenty miles long. Both will penetrate big tracts of timber.

KILLED A SPARROW WITH GOLF BALL

An Expert Driver on the Mississippi Links, Performs an Unheard-of Feat in the Game.

The Mississippi Golf club can now justly lay claim to having among its members one of the most expert drivers in the state of the United States.

In a game played recently, this player demonstrated that a golf ball might be used by an expert for the purpose of hunting game, as well for playing golf. The gentleman is very modest about his skill and seldom speaks of it in public. In the game spoken of he had just teed his ball and prepared to make one of his fancy drives, when he noticed an English sparrow sitting on the ground a short distance ahead of him, on the line of his drive. He spoke to some of his friends that were standing near the tee and said that he would try and hit the bird. He took careful aim and struck the ball which started on a line for the bird, but a short distance above it. The bird heard the whistle of the ball and jumped from the ground directly into the course of the ball's flight and was struck by it and killed.

This is no pipe dream and was not the result of an excessive use of "high balls." The story is vouched for by several reliable members of the club and any one acquainted with the habits of golf players know that they never lie, as it is strictly prohibited by the rules of the game. The story is not discredited by any member of the club as this player has been known to accomplish many other feats with the festive ball equally as difficult. They are willing to back their man against any known player when it comes to a question of fancy shots.

Anyone anxious to get a match with this gentleman can get all of the necessary information as to terms and conditions from Secretary J. P. ten of the cars struck theshredtuoani Baker, who has the matter in charge.

CITY HALL CONTRACTS ARE LET

Preliminary Progress on the New Building Being Made Fast.

The Jeffris Company yesterday secured the contract to furnish the sash and window frames for all the exterior walls of the new city hall.

C. K. Miltimore will furnish the rubble stone for the foundation, and will begin hauling it at once. After visiting the different quarries in this vicinity and securing prices for stone, Contractor Rawson decided the Miltimore quarry was the best for all purposes.

The Janesville brick yard will furnish all the brick for the interior walls, and already have a large quantity of these piled up on the Jackson street front of the lot.

Contractor Rawson proposes to give Janesville the benefit of the money paid out for the construction of the building as far as he can. Material and supplies that can be furnished here will be bought here in preference to other cities if the price is right.

Workmen are now employed in getting things ready about the lot to lay the foundation for the building. The contractors expect to have the walls up and the roof on before the extreme cold weather arrives, so that work on the interior of the building can be carried on all winter.

Can be completely and permanently removed, no matter how young or old the sufferer.

Hood's Sarsaparilla was given the daughter of Silas Vernoo, Wawarsing, N. Y., who had broken out with scrofula, sores all over her face and head. The first bottle helped her and when she had taken six the sores were all healed and her face was smooth. He writes that she has never shown any sign of the scrofula returning.

PEACE GIVEN A SETBACK

Combine Officers Say No Overtures Will Be Made.

SHAFFER STILL HOLDS OUT.

Denies That Civic Federation Emissaries Were Authorized to Act for Union—More Steel Mills Started—Painter Hoop Plant Is Running.

Pittsburg, Aug. 27.—From trust sources came an official statement today that will end any speculation there may be regarding the attitude of C. M. Schwab and J. P. Morgan toward officers of the National Civic Federation who think they can bring about a settlement of the steel workers' strike. A private telegram received here from an official of the United States Steel Corporation said that no peace overtures had been made to the employees, that none are expected and that the steel corporation will not make any. The combine maintains its position that so far as it is concerned the strike will continue. It goes further than it did before and says there is no prospect either immediate or remote of the strike being terminated by agreement between the employers and the Amalgamated Association. This is taken to mean that nothing but an unconditional surrender by the strike leaders will be accepted. Unless President Shaffer and his advisers act soon they will lose some of the mills they formerly controlled. The Crescent plant in Cleveland, the Star mills in Pittsburg and the Ironside tin plate mill were union, but have been started nonunion. The Hyde Park sheet mill was also in the recognized union list, but is now running nonunion. Combine officials say the Amalgamated Association has lost these mills, no matter how the strike may be terminated. Whether the union will be recognized in plants it controlled before the strike and which are still idle is a matter of doubt. President Shaffer said today he was not in consultation by telephone or otherwise with Messrs. Easley and White, representing the National Civic Federation, who went to New York last night. He reiterated the statement that they did not carry authority from the Amalgamated Association to negotiate a settlement of the strike. "I have not heard from them," he said. "They may be able to settle it. A number of people have tried it without being able to do anything. I have had no proposition or communication today from the trust and have sent none. I do not expect to send any. While we are willing to agree to any reasonable proposition and are anxious to settle, the strike cannot be ended without our consent." Developments for the day were nearly all favorable to the trust. Two more mills at the Painter hoop plant were started. This puts the entire plant in operation. Arrangements are now being made to run a night turn in addition to the day turn. The Monessen steel mill was put on double turn tonight. The Demmer tinplate plant was not started.

COURT IS IN CONTEMPT.

Strikers at Hammond Openly Defy the Judge's Injunction.

Hammond, Ind., Aug. 26.—Acting under legal advice, the strikers at W. B. Conkey's printing establishment, at Hammond, Ind., have openly defied the injunction prohibiting picketing issued

A COMMON ERROR.

The Same Mistake is Made By Many Janesville People.

It's a common error of plaster the aching back, to rub with liniment rheumatic joints, when the trouble comes from the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills, and are endorsed by Janesville citizens.

Mr. Samuel Griffin, of 203 Locust St. journeyman car enter, says: "I had a severe attack of la grippe and as a result weakness of the kidneys set in. The secretions from those organs were greatly disordered, annoyed me much at night and I seemed to have limited control of them. After finishing the treatment my kidneys were so strengthened that I could sleep all night without being disturbed. I am better now than I have been for years, and give all credit to Doan's Kidney Pills for bringing about this result."

Saturday by Judge Baker of the United States Court at Indianapolis. At an early hour the strikers were on the streets intercepting each employee as he or she started to work and endeavoring to induce them to join in a general strike. As a result there were great accessions to the ranks of the strikers. Electrotypers, bookbinders and others who had hitherto refused to join the unions are now seeking admission, and at a mass meeting held in Roth's hall a union of electrotypers was formed.

Seventeen electrotypers in the employ of the company struck yesterday. This constituted the entire force of that department and will shortly stop the composing room should there be no strike in that department. However, Mr. Conkey believes he will be able to operate the electrotyping room again in a few days.

STRIKERS' TALK TERMS.

Empower Civic Federation to See Steel Corporation.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 27.—The National Civic Federation is to make an effort to bring the protracted steel strike to an end this week by making concessions to the United States Steel corporation. The terms have been agreed to by President Shaffer of the Amalgamated association, but what they are and their exact mode of presentation are not known further than that there is to be no request for arbitration. The action of President Shaffer in abrogating the wage contracts with the Federal Steel company covering its western mills and in other instances was questioned. Messrs. Mitchell, White and Jenks spoke of the importance of strict observance of wage agreements as contracts by the labor unions. President Shaffer maintained his position to the satisfaction of most of the conferees. It is stated that when the Lower Union mills of the Carnegie company in Lawrenceville were ready to start up the officials discovered they were short about sixty of the skilled men who had been working there up to Saturday. As a result two of the roughing mills were idle, the twelve-inch mill is crippled, the plate mill was only operated about half the number of heats, and the nine-inch mill is still out and will not be operated. Officials believe that the strikers will not stay out for long.

KOHLISAAT'S ORDER IGNORED TOO

Striking Machinists Advised That Peaceful Picketing Is Legal

Chicago, Aug. 27.—The striking machinists are still defying Judge Kohlisaat's injunction. Both the Fraser & Chalmers plant and the Gates Iron works were surrounded by pickets during the day. Business Agent Ireland of the Machinists' union says that picketing will go on just the same as before the injunction. A committee has already consulted attorneys, who advise them that Judge Kohlisaat exceeded his powers in prohibiting workmen speaking in a peaceful manner to the nonunion employees.

Typographical Union, No. 16, has passed a resolution censuring Judge Kohlisaat for his action. A copy will be forwarded to President McKinley.

Another Strike at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 27.—The McClintock-Marshall Construction company of Braddock, Pa., is practically closed down today on account of a strike of the 700 employees. The men demanded the reinstatement of an employee discharged last week and a general advance of 10 per cent and the abolishment of the checking-up system at noon. A committee called at the office this morning to present the demands, but the manager refused to see them. A meeting was then held and the men decided to strike.

Joliet Machinists on Strike.

Joliet, Ill., Aug. 27.—All machinists employed by the Bates Machine company have struck, giving as their reason an objectionable foreman. The plant employed altogether 200 men. The machinists struck some time ago on the question of wages. This was settled, the new trouble having just developed.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by People's drug store and King's pharmacy.

Lynchers Sure to Escape.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 27.—The leaders of the mob that burned at the stake Henry Knowles, colored, near Winchester, Tenn., yesterday, are all known to nearly every man in Franklin county, but will never be prosecuted. The mob included many law officers and prominent citizens and it would be impossible to get a grand jury to return true bills in the case.

Indianapolis Democrats Name Maguire

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 27.—Democratic primaries, the first under the new law, were held yesterday. A light vote was polled. Charles Maguire was nominated for mayor over William Moore. Mr. Maguire is a member of the board of public safety. August Tamm was nominated for city clerk and Edward Tuttle for police judge.

Actress Dies in Squalor.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 27.—The widow of W. T. Sheridan, the actor, better known to theatergoers of days gone by as Louise Davenport, died in poverty and misery in wretched lodgings at 143 Minna street in this city early this morning. She was found dead in bed some time about 4 o'clock by George Bowen, with whom she had been living for many months. Liquor and opium ended her life. The lodgings in which Louise Sheridan breathed her last speak forcibly of the poverty that marked her last days. Not a comfort, not an evidence of refinement—simply a pallet to sleep upon, a wooden table, some chairs and some well-drained bottles.

Colonel Haverly recently moved to Salt Lake City since his retirement from the show business several years ago and has been devoting his time almost exclusively to mining.

TELEGRAPHIC SERVICE

The Gazette receives the full daily telegraphic report of the Scripps-McKee agency.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday and probably showers.

JANESVILLE'S OPPORTUNITY.

While other cities are paying bonuses for improvements and new enterprises, they come to Janesville without an effort, and all that is asked of the people, is to get out of the way.

The latest venture, and one that promises to be of great benefit to the city, is the contemplated electric line from Madison, by way of Edgerton and Stoughton. The promoter of this new line is P. L. Spooner of Madison, a brother of Senator Spooner.

The gentlemen associated with him have plenty of money to push the enterprise, and Janesville will soon be asked for a franchise, in compliance with an ordinance now being published.

The request will doubtless be granted, as the council, as well as the citizens, realize that every additional line of railroad is of great benefit.

With the Beloit and Delavan road completed, the Madison line will put Janesville in easy touch with a chain of lakes, and add to the desirability of the place for a home.

The new electric lines that are spreading over the country like a network, are in keeping with the rapid march of progress. They bring the farm and the town near together.

Janesville as the county seat of one of the best counties in the state, is fortunate in being selected as the center of these railroad improvements. They will add to the value of all properties, and tend to a steady increase of population.

The Gazette expresses popular sentiment in wishing Mr. Spooner success.

The controversy

Music which has arisen because of the opinion which has been expressed concerning the character of church hymns, makes it both interesting and instructive to note the different ideas which have prevailed in reference to church music, and the distinction between it and secular music.

There are those who think church music must be of a peculiar character, entirely unlike secular music, while others would admit any music in the church, contending that sacred words will sanctify music of any kind. The music of the Salvation Army fully illustrates this point. The popular street melodies most in vogue are fitted with religious words, and accompanied by drums and banjos. The army considers the more vivacious the tune, the better it is suited to their needs. There are those who claim that religious music should be slow, solemn and severe, while others would have light, festive and tripping airs for divine service. Like most extremists, both sides are wrong, and a judicious mean is the desideratum. Rossini said there were two kinds of music, good and bad; but what may be good in one place may be bad in a different environment. Rossini's music was all good, but not adapted to religious uses.

It is difficult to define accurately what the difference is between religious and secular music, but every one can appreciate the difference, and realizes that it is inherent in the music itself. Certainly music is wedded to worship by indissoluble ties expressly sanctioned by God. From the earliest recorded time in all countries homage is rendered to a God with a music accompaniment of some kind. The most barbarous savage, bowing before his fetish, beats his rude drum, while the Egyptian developed religious music to the highest degree possible. From the sacred books of the east we are taught that those ancient heathens accompanied their worship by both vocal and instrumental music. A thousand years before the time of Christ the Persians formed religious processions in which they sang prayers and praises. In the book of Daniel is recorded the names of those Persian musical instruments. In Prescott's "Conquest of Mexico," we are told that the priests were carefully schooled in music, and that every temple had a carefully trained boy choir. Even Esquimaux chant their prayers. Without going into detail any further we find that music of the best quality the worshipper has to offer is always considered an accompaniment of religious worship. Music is the highest expression of the emotional faculties, and true worship is emotional. The Bible is full of music from Genesis to Revelation, and the Songs of Moses are quoted as being the character of the music in the world to come. One hundred times we are exhorted to "sing unto the Lord," and thirty-nine times are the musicians commended; twenty-nine times is the music described; one hundred and forty-five times musical instruments are described. Our sacred music is the culmination of experiment and growth, and has a style distinctively different from secular music. In the middle ages the delight of the ear rather than the outpouring of a soul was the incentive in making music.

People have revolted from the music of Haydn and Mozart and demand worship music, spiritual in character. This revolt is what has been called by Prof. Triggs and others a decadence, and they seem to have lost sight of the emotional and religious aspect of the very hymns they have judged. Our church hymns have been too effective and will be too lasting in their influence to be affected much by what Chicago University thinks about them.

The Independent discusses the question, "Shall Girls Go to College?" giving, of course, the affirmative answer. In this age when the fair sex is coming so strongly into competition with men, we do not see the distinction that is sometimes made between the training demanded of the girl and the boy. If our daughter is to displace her brother as book-keeper, clerk or merchant, she must compete with him along every line. First, she must offer to work for less than he can afford to work for. This she can do, because she rarely has to supply the wants of anyone besides herself. She must compete in business ability and sagacity which will determine more than wages, who is the successful candidate. The world has for several years been demanding more and more of her brother, particularly in the professions, and if his sister is to compete with him, the world will demand the same grade of intelligence and education for the same wages. The business man of today invariably asks the question, "What can you do?" not "How much do you know?" and ten years after graduation neither boy nor girl could pass an examination in freshman mathematics, but their education has given them the ability to think and to do, and that is the final desideratum.

By all means, educate the girls, and give them that education which will teach them to do something more than pose as wall flowers or society debutantes.

The Milwaukee Free Press attempts to blackmail the character of the late superintendent of the School for the Blind, by saying that he was removed for cause. The paper lacks the honesty to add that the only cause was the governor's orders, which were faithfully carried out by his board of control.

Monarchies seem to pay better than republics. Parliament has voted $500,000 to Lord Roberts to support his earldom, besides the $70,000 voted him on his return from South Africa. The widow of Captain Gridley who "fired when he was ready," at Manila, receives $35 per month pension.

The liner Celtic is described as nine stories high and has at her disposal of three and a half blocks on Fifth avenue. She is the most wonderful boat ever built, not simply because of her size, but because she was built as a "slow" boat.

Maryland democrats are at last frank in their demands that "we must prevent the control of the state government from passing into the hands of those who are unable to manage it wisely." Do they mean republicans or negroes?

Jules Verne has another opportunity to win fame by writing up the robbery of the vaults at Vallejo, Cal.

Work of Mischievous Persons

Sunday some mischievous person released the brakes on a long string of cars left standing on one of the sidetracks of the St. Paul company at Snipe Hill. The track is down grade at this point and soon the whole string of seventeen cars was moving swiftly down the siding. When they arrived at the end of the siding ten of the cars struck the split switch and left the rails, but after going a short distance they struck a frog and jumped back onto the rails. They were discovered by the yard men and stopped before going much further. The yard men say that a gang of boys hang around that part of the town amuse themselves by letting off brakes and throwing switches, much to the annoyance and anger of the railroad company. One of the boys was sent to the reform school a few days ago and others will suffer the same punishment if they are caught.

FERRIS COMEDIANS IN "THE PLUNGER"

Cast of Characters for the Play "For The Love of a Woman," To Be Presented Tonight.

One of the largest audiences seen at the Myers Grand, assembled last night to witness the production of "The Plunger" by the Ferris comedians. Every seat was occupied and the people stood in the side aisles and the rear. The show pleased the crowd and they vented their delight with frequent applause and hearty laughter.

"The Plunger" is a play in five acts, the scene being laid in and about New York City, and was fairly well staged by special scenery carried by the company. The cast of characters was very good. Harry E. McKee as Dexter Digby, "The Plunger" carried his part in a praiseworthy manner. This show was replete with good things and the audience enjoyed it. The specialties by Emily Batto, The Rutherford Sisters, Harry E. McKee and Mayer and Dale were first class. The company made a decided hit in their opening play and the prospects are that they will have crowded houses.

CONCERT PROMISES A SENSATION UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENT SEPT. 6

Mid-Winter Fair Committee Will Organize a Grand Popular Concert at the Opera House to Wipe Out the Canning Factory Bonus Debt.

The Midwinter fair committee, who have in charge the raising of the $5,000 bonus for bringing the canning factory to Janesville, is short $600 on the subscription list, and they are going to raise that amount by holding a popular concert at the Grand Opera House on Friday evening, Sept. 6. Mr. Peter L. Myers kindly donates the use of his theater.

This concert will be something unique and notable in every respect. The Imperial band, the Y. M. C. A. band, and Prof. Smith's concert orchestra have all tendered their services free of charge. Local artists, amateur and professional, have signified their willingness to aid the enterprise and one of the best local entertainments ever given in Janesville is assured.

One of the main objects of the concert, outside of the raising of the bonus, is to introduce to the music loving citizens of Janesville the new High Step Military band. This organization will be composed of artists and thorough musicians and they are expected to create a sensation. The personal identity of these artists will be kept a secret, but when they appear and perform their specialties created for this occasion there will be intense astonishment. The concert will comprise many novel and artistic features. There will be things seen and heard which will be long remembered. It will be local in every respect, and every man and woman interested in the city should make it a point to be present and take in the gorgeous things which will be offered.

Details of the affair will be announced in The Gazette from day to day as the making up of the program progresses.

ANOTHER PIONEER SETTLER IS GONE

WILLIAM H. BLODGETT DIED THIS NOON IN THIS CITY.

He Was One of the First Settlers of Beloit and Always Kept His Residence in That City. He Was in the Milling Business in This City—Other Deaths.

William H. Blodgett, the pioneer settler of the city of Beloit, died this noon in this city at the home of his daughter, Mrs. David D. Holmes, 204 Park Place after an extended illness.

Mr. Blodgett was sixty-seven years of age at the time of his death and was born in Columbus, Ind., on the 13th day of March, 1834. In 1836 he came with his grandfather and mother to Rock county living then but two years of age. At that time not a house marked the site of the city of Beloit. He received his primary education in the pioneer school house of the early days. At a later date he took a full business course at D. V. Bill's Commercial college in Chicago.

He was married in 1856 to Miss Elizabeth M. Hodge of New York who still survives him. Five children were born to them, but only two are now living, Frank H. Blodgett and Mrs. David D. Holmes of this city. In 1857 he engaged in the milling business in Beloit and continued it until he came to this city in 1898 and purchased the Hodson mills, which have since been conducted by him and his son Frank H. Blodgett and son-in-law, David D. Holmes, as the Blodgett Milling company.

He was a member of the Morning Star Lodge No. 10, F. and A. M. of Beloit, Beloit chapter, No. 3, R. A. M. and Beloit Commandery No. 61 K. T. He was also a member of Myrtle lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F. of Beloit. He was a democrat. He was a man of more than ordinary ability and in his business relations stood high in the community. He was genial, possessed of a kindly nature and made friends wherever he went.

In the numerous official and responsible positions he has held, he has always proved himself to be honorable and upright and in every way trustworthy. Although he has resided in this city for the last three years he has never given up his residence in Beloit and went there regularly to vote. His widow and children are broken hearted over their loss and have the sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral services will be held from his home, 204 Park Place, Friday afternoon at one o'clock and at the Methodist church in Beloit at three o'clock. The interment will be at the Beloit cemetery.

Funeral of Rev. Dr. Hodge.
The funeral of the late Dr. M. G. Hodge will be held from the First Baptist church of this city tomorrow afternoon. The body will arrive in this city at 11:47 over the Northwestern railroad and will be taken directly to the church. The funeral services will be conducted by the Reverend Richard M. Vaughan, Rev. J. M. Conley of Oak Park, Ill., Rev. Hanson of Beloit, Rev. Cheney of Racine and the Rev. E. H. Pence of Detroit.

The pall bearers for the occasion will be S. B. Smith, W. B. Clinton, W. H. Rose, I. A. Whiffen, Charles Eller and J. T. Fichett.

TAILOR MADE SUITS.
We are making lower prices on good suits than any other house in Janesville. Another thing, and an important one, we have more good suits to offer. Comparing new fall styles with late spring suits, the difference is not great and many women can buy our suits at figures in many instances less than half price and be the owners of a good substantial stylish costume. This suit matter is certainly worth looking into.

A SPLIT IN THE RANKS OF LABOR

Carpenters, Bricklayers and Masons Hire Imperial Band Despite Protest of the Federation.

The Imperial band will play for the carpenters, brick layers and masons' unions during labor day, independent of the Federation of Labor. They will be in the same procession with the balance of the unions, but will head the parade of these three unions. Considerable feeling has been stirred up in the labor unions of this city over the fact that the Imperial band was turned down by some of the leaders in the federation. The carpenters, masons and bricklayers have no grievance against the band and were not in accord with the plan of hiring the Porter band.

The Porter band is not composed of union men and in fact does not have as many union members in its organization as the Imperial. In order to set the seal of their disapproval on the plan, the three named unions decided that they would patronize the home band and so hired it for their particular part of the parade.

It would be a very hard thing to find a band that did not have a number of members who were not members of a labor union. Many of the men interested in the band conduct their own business and consequently are not eligible to belong to the union.

Other members of the federation are not satisfied with some of the moves made by officers of the federation and are talking seriously of withdrawing.

MACHIAS IS NOW AT COLON

United States Gunboat Ready to Guard Interests.

THE RANGER AT ACAPULCO.

This Little Gunboat Is Also Bound for Colombia—Intervention Deemed Certain Should Fighting Occur on the Isthmus—Liberals and Conservatives.

Colon, Aug. 27.—The United States gunboat Machias has arrived here. The German cruiser Vineta is expected shortly. The Chilean cruiser Ministro Centeno has been ordered to Guayaquil, and probably will proceed to Panama. The government sent troops on Saturday to Bocas del Torro, near which town rebels are reported.

Ranger Reaches Acapulco. Washington, D. C., Aug. 27.—The little gunboat Ranger, which left San Diego, Cal., on Aug. 17, for Panama, arrived at Acapulco, Mexico, today.

United States May Intervene. Colon, Columbia, Aug. 23, via Kingston, Jamaica, Aug. 27.—The censorship here prevents the transmission of political news, or news unfavorable to the government. The impression prevails locally that in case of trouble on the isthmus the United States will interfere actively. The revolt of the Liberal Colombian rebels, now two years old, lately assumed a more serious aspect by the liberals' concentration on the isthmus. It is believed they are contemplating aggressive action. Consequently, uneasiness prevails at Panama, the liberal objective, which was nearly captured a year ago. It is not believed the rebels will molest the railroad or interrupt traffic. The situation can be likened to a disrupted federation, composed of Venezuela, Ecuador, Colombia and Nicaragua, in which liberal and conservative partisans are helping each other and intriguing together. But, being separate nations, the political and armed intrigues threaten international trouble. It is reported that the conservative revolt in Venezuela against President Castro is receiving actual support from the Colombian conservatives. Nicaragua's threatened revolution will probably be similarly aided on the occasion arising. The liberals generally are opposed to Colombia's conservative administration, whose prophesied downfall is accompanied by talk of a federation or consolidation of some or all of the countries mentioned under the idea of a "Grand Colombia."

Check to Polish Agitators. Berlin, Aug. 27.—Public evidence of the renewal of an extensive Polish agitation has just been located by the imperial postoffice authorities. Under cover of the prevailing postal-card craze it has been discovered that an immense number of cards bearing the inscription "Poland is not yet lost" have been circulated through the mails. Others bearing allegorical drawings portraying Poland's past struggles for independence and the country's hopes for the future have also attained wide publicity. The postoffice department announces that hereafter such matter will be excluded from the mails on the ground that government agencies cannot be employed for seditious purposes.

Sweden Running a Mine. Stockholm, Aug. 27.—The imperialistic spirit of the great nations is forcing Sweden to socialism. The Gellivare Mining company, which began work in the enormous iron fields in Lapland, is reported to be in financial straits. It is expected that the Swedish government will be compelled to work the mines itself, and warned by the Transvaal's fate the government is building railways and keeping the developments of the country within safe bounds.

Steamer Lusitania Is Sunk. Havre, Aug. 27.—The Spanish steamer Amboto, Capt. Muniz, from New Orleans Aug. 2, via Norfolk Aug. 9 for this port, collided last night with the German steamer Lusitania from Hamburg for Mediterranean ports, off the Casquet rocks. The Lusitania sunk in an hour. Four of her crew were drowned. The remainder, twenty-one men, were picked up. The Lusitania was an iron vessel of 984 tons. She belonged to A. G. De Freitas & Co., and hailed from Hamburg. She was built in 1881.

Prince Chun's Illness a Ruse. Rome, Aug. 27.—The illness of Prince Chun, brother of the emperor of China, who, with a Chinese mission, has arrived at Basel, Switzerland, on his way to Berlin to apologize for the assassination of Baron von Ketteler, the German minister, at Peking, is, according to a dispatch received here today from Basel, a pretext for delay. Prince Chun having received orders from Peking not to proceed, as fresh complications have arisen with reference to the settlement protocol.

Boers Capture British. London, Aug. 27.—Another dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated from Pretoria, says: "Three officers and sixty-five men who were sent north of Ladysbrand (Orange River Colony), on the right of Elliott's columns, were surrounded on unfavorable ground and captured by a superior force Aug. 22. One man was killed and four were wounded. The prisoners were released. Am holding an inquiry."

American Girl Gets Princes. Constantinople, Aug. 27.—The engagement is announced of Miss Hazel

Singer to Prince Ghika, the son of the Roumanian minister to Turkey. Miss Singer came to Constantinople from America a few months ago to visit the United States minister, Mr. Leishman. The affair has been pending for some time, as the parents of the girl refused their consent until they could come to Constantinople and interview the prince and his family. Mr. Singer made his fortune in America dealing in wheat.

Sultan to Pay $205,000. Constantinople, Aug. 27.—The amount of indemnity which the sultan agrees to pay the Quays company for interference with its rights is 700,000 francs ($140,000). The sultan will also pay 300,000 francs ($125,000) to a Frenchman on account of the seizing of his lands. The Quays company renounces for a year the clause in its concession regarding the transfer of the quays to Turkey, only, it is believed, to save appearances for the sultan.

Steals from the Premier. Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 27.—At the police court today R. P. Roblin, premier of Manitoba, charged his partner in the cattle business, D. W. Mills, with the theft of $16,000.

12 Persons Killed in Riots. Lemberg, Galicia, Aug. 27.—In election riots at Huziatin, Galicia, today twelve persons were killed and seventeen injured.

Druggist Kills Outlaw. Seymour, Ind., Aug. 27.—Dick Burrell, a noted desperado and terror to this community, was shot and instantly killed at 7:10 o'clock last evening by Orlean Emerson in the latter's drug store in Brownstown. Three shots took effect in Burrell's head. Burrell has a long list of crimes to his discredit, including the murder of two men without provocation. His shooting scrapes have been numerous. Many years ago he would ride into town and shoot up and down the streets just to see the people scatter. Two years ago, in a desperate fight with his nephew, Charles Burrell, he was shot through the right lung, but recovered. He learned his lessons of outlawry during the dark days of '68 under the infamous Reno gang, which had headquarters in this county.

Butchers Wife and Self. Chicago, Aug. 27.—Unable to support his wife and failing to persuade her to return to him Nicholas Rieblinger cut her throat and his own with a razor. Both died in a few minutes. Rieblinger first cut his wife's throat and then, sitting down calmly in front of a mirror, cut his own. Mrs. Rieblinger died while being taken to the Provident Hospital and her husband expired shortly after arriving there. Rieblinger was a laborer, but he had worked but little during the last five years, it is said, and his wife was obliged to take in washing.

THE DEUTSCHLAND'S LARDER.

List of the Provisions Carried for a Trip Over Ocean.

For the lover of statistics for their own sake, and incidentally for the man who likes to eat well, the list of the contents of an ocean liner's larder is attractive reading. Here for instance is about the average supply aboard the Deutschland at the beginning of every voyage between this port and Hamburg, and, of course all the other big ships are provisioned in about the same way. In the first place there is forty tons of ice to keep things eatable and drinkable, and these are the things that were on the ice on a recent trip across: fourteen beeves, ten calves, twenty-nine sheep, twenty-six lambs, nine hogs, 1,500 chickens, geese and game birds, 1,700 pounds of fish, 400 pounds of tongue and sweetbreads, 1,700 dozen of eggs, fourteen barrels of oysters and clams, 175 barrels of potatoes, seventy-five barrels of other vegetables, twenty crates of tomatoes, and celery, 200 heads of lettuce, ninety barrels of flour, 600 pounds of oatmeal and hominy, 1,300 pounds of butter, 2,200 quarts of milk, 300 quarts of cream, 1,000 big molds of ice cream, four tons of fruit, 12,000 quarts of wine and liquor, 15,000 quarts of beer and 400 tons of drinking water. Of course all of this is not used on each trip, but enough is carried to provide a liberal margin.—New York Sun.

Incensed at Germany.

New York, Aug. 27.—The prevailing anti-German feeling in Russia, says the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times, has greatly increased since the proposed new German tariff has been made public. This is particularly true of Poland, where, even under normal conditions, great racial animosity exists between the Teutonic and Slav elements of the population.

Mob Seeks Negro's Life.

Fort Smith, Ark., Aug. 27.—A mob is swarming around the jail here with the intention of lynching a negro named Louis Smith, who was arrested and lodged in jail here today, charged with attacking a 7-year-old girl, the daughter of a railroad employee.

Harahan Not Called.

New York, Aug. 27.—James T. Harahan, second vice president of the Illinois Central railroad, who returned from Europe on Saturday, denies the report that the presidency of the Southern Pacific railroad has been offered to him.

A west-bound Santa Fe extra freight was wrecked by a broken axle at Cedar Point, midway between Emporia and Newton, Kan. Brakeman L. E. Ziegler was caught under the wreckage and killed.
